YOU, the student, have just entered the doors of Joplin Junior College, and the heart of its activities. The things you have done here may prove to be among the most influential experiences of your life. Because our high hopes for you in the future are built upon what you take with you from these doors, and because we want you to be able to recall with pleasure these things of the present as they fade deeper into the past, we are dedicating this book to YOU.
